Senior Clinical Training Scholarship (Residency) in Equine Dentistry

Applications are invited for a Senior Clinical Training Scholarship (Residency) in Equine Dentistry. This is a four-year fixed-term scholarship, with an annual review and renewal by mutual consent.

The position will be based in the Equine Hospital at the Easter Bush Campus, Roslin, where the resident will participate in the diagnosis and treatment of referred equine cases and receive specialist training in equine dentistry, along with training in general equine soft tissue surgery. The resident will participate in the general out-of-hours rota for the Equine Hospital. At least two years postgraduate clinical experience in equine practice is necessary. Eligibility for membership of the RCVS is also a pre-requisite and the successful applicant must have fully registered with the RCVS at the time of appointment. Applicants should also hold appropriate English language qualifications, where necessary. Applicants will be expected to enrol for the European Veterinary Dental College (Equine) Diploma and an MSc research degree.

The scholarship attracts an annual tax free stipend of £18,750 per annum with a supplement payable for on-call duties, and an additional allowance of £600 per annum available for approved travel, examination fees and CPD. Postgraduate fees will be paid by the University of Edinburgh at EU level.

Informal enquiries are encouraged and may be made to: Prof. Paddy Dixon, telephone 0131 650 6253 or by email P.M.Dixon@ed.ac.uk
